

Meeting the mental health needs of youth in schools: Challenges and opportunities

Increasingly, mental health and wellness is a topic of discussion in education. This presentation will focus on how schools are working to meet the mental health needs of youth.

Cindy Finn, Ph.D.

Cindy Finn is the Director of Student Services at the Lester B. Pearson School Board in Montreal. She holds a Ph.D. in Educational Psychology from McGill University and is a licensed psychologist. Cindy is a founding member of the Centre of Excellence for Mental Health which supports school-based mental health initiatives in Quebec.